OFFICIAL COUNTY AND CITY JOURNAL.

Jesse O. Wheeler, Proprietor.

Entered at the Postoffice, Brownsville, Texas, as second-class matter.

Consolidated in 1893 with the Daily Cosmopolitan which was published in Brownsville, for sixteen years.

TUESDAY, MARCH 29, 1904.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We are authorized to announce the name of the HON. JNO. N. GARNER.

as a candidate for re-election to Congress from this, the Fifteenth District, subject to the action of the democratic party.

JAPAN has her grafters also, it seems.

TEXAS wants good roads and must have them.

PROHIBITION in Texas would make Santa Cruz, a l'otro lado, a very popular resort for Brownsville.

Now, there's John B. Hardwicke employed by the Hearst bureau to organize a Hearst "democratic" club at Corpus Christi. Great Scott! O, Truth!

WEB. Davis has no love for Roosevelt, of course. Still, his remarks regarding the chief executive are somewhat interesting and lend a piquancy to the situation which was wholly lacking until he spoke.

MARTIAL law should be declared at St. Charles, Ark., where nine negroes have been killed within a week by white mobs. Will the South never realize the enormity of the crimes which it countenances on the part of white mobs!

SOME whisky soaks in Smith county, who must have liquor at any cost, are trying to break into the penitentiary by forging doctors' names to prescriptions for the stuff they crave. Prohibition generally brings out the worst that is in that class of men.

THE bill to appropriate $90,000 for a new stable for President Roosevelt's horses has been held back for the present, the appropriations committee "being convinced that it would be unwise to press it at this time." That's where the presidential lucky star is in its work again. It would not have sounded very pleasant to the ears of the voters to say that the Roosevelt horses required a $90,000 stable built at the expense of the people.

THE move to enlist state aid for the purchase and preservation of the Alamo should be a success. Few states or counties can claim a monument to deeds of such sublime heroism as that for which the Alamo stands. In all the history of the world there are few events that can compare with the sacrifice of the noble patriot band that fell with Bowie and Crockett within the walls of this mission. Texas should consider it a sacred privilege to own and preserve it, that future generations of Texans, and all the world as well, may not deem the state unworthy of the heritage left to us by the heroes of the Alamo.

Locations in Texas Wanted.

The Frisco System Land and Immigration Association is already turning its share of the southwestern tide of immigration of Texas.

Three hundred and fifty agents of this Association from the East and North have just completed a tour of Texas and viewed its resources and interviewed its land-owners and local Association agents, for the sole purpose of better presenting Texas opportunities to the homeseeker and investor in the older state.

This Association is the most efficient of its kind in existence, and has agents everywhere in the United States. If you wish to sell your farm, town or own property, or if you desire capital for factories, mercantile establishments or any of the industries, please address R. S. LEMON, Secretary Immigration Bureau, Dept. A, Frisco Building, Saint Louis, Mo.

Digest.

Nearly half the four blocks for the Pennsylvania station in New York has already been cleared and the spring will see the ground bare of buildings. The purchase of the real estate and the leases has cost the Pennsylvania railroad over ten million dollars; add to this the construction of the approaches and the station and the total expenditures will reach nearly $50,000,000. The final plans of the station have not been announced and the architects say that such plans as they have at present may be altered; but, as far as can be learned, the structure will be something after this fashion: The building will rise only sixty feet above the surface, but from the lower floor to the roof it will have a height of 160 feet. Its capacity will be twice as large as that of any other station in the world, and the train shed will have twenty-five tracks. It will be 800 feet long and 430 feet wide, thus having a total frontage of 2,500 feet. The facade will be of granite with great pillars at regular intervals. The roof will be of granite and iron. The entrance will be on Seventh avenue, and entering this way you will find yourself in a long arcade, flanked by shops of all sorts.

A Macedonian Amazon.

Katarina Arnautova, a Macedonian woman, has participated in a great deal of fighting during the insurrection against Turkey. A correspondent describes her as about 26 years of age, of middle height, well set up and strong looking, with blue eyes and brown hair which she wears long, but done up under her black fur cap. She wore also a gray tunic of a military cut and metal buttons, a leather belt, gray trousers, and leggings of a full violet colored wool. A whistle for giving signals was attached to her watch chain, and in her pocket she had some poison wrapped up in paper in case she should fall into the hands of the Turks. She said she had been in six important engagements and others of less importance, was a good shot, and knew of five Turks that had fallen before her rifle.

No Charge for Advice.

W. K. Vanderbilt gave a committee of Long Island ministers a cold douche the other day. The ministers called upon him at his country seat, Idle Hour, and asked for a contribution. "How many people are there in the community where your churches are located?" he asked. "About 3,000," replied one of the ministers. "And how many churches have you there?" "Seven of various denominations," said Mr. Vanderbilt. "You are overburdened with churches. I advise you to reduce the number and cut down on the salaries of ministers and learn to be self-supporting. Try the scheme. If you find it works, I won't charge you for the advice. Good morning."
